

(Unofficial Translation)
Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies B.E. 2565

As it has been deemed appropriate to amend the Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies in order to promote academic excellence and effectiveness in accordance with the current conditions.

By virtue of Article 21 (2) of Chulalongkorn University Act B.E. 2551, the University Council at its meeting (number 856) on October 28, 2021, approved these regulations as follows:

Article 1. These regulations are here after known as the "Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies B.E. 2565"

Article 2. These regulations shall be effective from Academic Year 2021 onwards, except Chapter 8 which shall be effective from the next day of announcement onwards.

Article 3. Repeal of the regulations;

- (1) The Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies B.E. 2556.
- (2) The Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies (Version 2) B.E. 2560.

All other rules, regulations, or announcements subsumed in the aforementioned regulations or which either contradict or conflict with these regulations shall be replaced by these regulations unless otherwise stipulated.

Article 4. As used in these regulations:

"University" means Chulalongkorn University (Chula);

"Office of the Registrar" means the Office of the Registrar of Chulalongkorn University;

"Faculty" means a faculty, school, college, or common institutes with equivalent status to a faculty that oversees undergraduate programs;

"Dean" means the dean of the faculty, school, or college which oversees an undergraduate program;

"Faculty Administrative Board" means the administrative board of a faculty, school, college, or common institute with equivalent status to a faculty;

"Program Board" means a program committee within a faculty, school, college, or common institutes with equivalent status to a faculty responsible for program supervision and development;

"Head of Department" means the head of a department with which a program is affiliated, the director of a non-affiliated program with a department, and the director of an interdisciplinary program;

"University Staff" means University personnel, government officers, government employees who work at the University, and University employees;

"Full-time Lecturer" means Chula staff with academic ranks of lecturer, assistant professor, associate professor, or professor at the University responsible for the mission of higher education and performing full-time duties;

"Internal Special Lecturer" means a university staff who is not a full-time lecturer;

"Program" means an undergraduate-level program in a particular field approved by the University Council and of which the Board of the Higher Education Commission has been informed;

"Student" means either a full-time or part-time student at Chulalongkorn University unless otherwise specified.

Article 5. Students must comply with the rules, regulations, announcements, orders and other guidelines of the university and departments to the extent that they do not conflict with these regulations.

Article 6. The University President is in charge of the enactment of these regulations.

Should any disagreement or uncertainty arise over the execution of these regulations, the University President's decision shall be final.

Chapter I
General Provisions

Article 7. University staff and external special lecturers who are responsible for graduate- level instruction under these regulations must fully satisfy the qualifications laid down in the University regulations and the conditions issued by the Academic Policy Board.

Chapter II
Academic Administration

Section 1
Academic System

Article 8. The undergraduate-level study shall operate under a credit system based on an academic term of semester, trimester, or another basis as determined by the University Council.

Article 9. An academic year is defined as follows:

- (1) The semester system means an academic system that shall be divided into two regular terms: the first semester and the second semester. A summer session may follow after the conclusion of the second semester.
- (2) The trimester system means an academic system that shall be divided into three regular terms: the first term, the second term, and the third term.
- (3) The module system means an academic system that shall be divided into more than three regular terms as determined by the Program.
- (4) Another system as determined by the Program.

For the programs operating under the semester system, each semester must take at least 15 weeks, and any summer session must take approximately 6 weeks. The total number of teaching hours for each course during the summer session must be equal to the regular semester duration.

For the programs operating under the trimester system, each trimester must take at least 12 weeks. One credit in the trimester system is equal to 12/15 credits in the semester system or 5 credits from the trimester system shall be equaled 4 credits in the semester system.

In the academic administration of the module system or the other system, the criteria for and details about the calculation of credits and their equivalent values in the semester system shall be spelled out in the documents of the Program concerned.

Article 10. Semester hour units representing the volume of academic work shall be referred to as "Credits". The number of credits granted for each course subject is determined as follows:

- (1) Theory-based or lecture-based courses with lectures or seminars shall contain 1 hour per week during a semester or approximately 15 hours per academic term which shall be assigned one credit. In the case of online learning, one hour and 30 minutes shall be assigned 0.1 credit in the semester system.
- (2) Laboratory-based course with practices or experiments shall contain 2–3 hours per week during a semester or between 30–45 hours per academic term which shall be assigned one credit. In the case of online learning, three hours shall be assigned 0.1 credit in the semester system.
- (3) Training or field work shall contain 3–6 hours per week during a semester or between 30–90 hours per academic term which shall be assigned one credit.
- (4) Project or activity as assigned at least 45 hours per academic term which shall be assigned one credit.

In this regard, the rules and methods for classifying teaching time and rest time in 1 hour shall be followed by the announcement of the University.

Article 11. The subjects specified in the curriculum as courses that students must study and pass examinations in order to receive an “S” grade but do not merit a grade to be accumulated for the overall credit requirements in the program shall be referred to as “Non-Credit Courses”.

Students who receive a “U” grade in a non-credit course, as explained above, must re-register for that course.

Article 12. Course credits refer to the number of credits for the courses students have registered as follows:

- (1) “Credit Attempted: CA” means the total number of credits for every subject taken and students receive the letter grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D and F in a particular semester.
- (2) “Cumulative Credit Attempted: CAX” means the total number of credits for all courses for which a student has registered in all academic terms, and for which grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, and S.
- (3) “Cumulative Credit Attempted: CG” means the total number of credits for all courses for which a student has registered in a particular semester, and for which grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, and S.
- (4) “Cumulative Credit Granted: CGX” means the total number of credits for which a student has received grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, and S. In the event that a student passes a course more than once or completes a course designated as equivalent to another course for which the student has already received credits, only those credits that the student earns in the first pass shall be counted.

Section 2 Period of study

Article 13. “Period of Study” means the total period of time that students spend on studying as required by the curriculum.

The Period of Study, as defined above, shall commence from the date of first registration for graduate study in the program and finish when students pass the examinations and complete all requirements for that program.

Article 14. Full-time bachelor's degree students must complete their program within the period of study as follow:

- (1) Eight academic years for students entering the 4-year program.
- (2) Ten academic years for students entering the 5-year program.
- (3) Twelve academic years for students entering the 6-year program.

Article 15. The period of study for part-time students in an undergraduate program must complete their program shall be followed by the announcement of the University.

Section 3 Language of Instruction

Article 16. Undergraduate-level instruction may be delivered in Thai or a foreign language and must be acknowledged to applicants before the application period.

During the study, the course instruction may be delivered in Thai or a foreign language.

When students have entered the study, The language requirements above must be acknowledged to students before registration in that academic year.

Chapter III Admission

Article 17. Applicants to a bachelor's degree program must have completed High School, or its equivalent levels that are accredited by the Ministry of Education following the criteria as determined by the Program.

Article 18. Admission shall be processed by examination, selection, or other methods as determined by the Faculty Committee with the approval of the Academic Committee.

Chapter IV Registration

Section 1 Initial Registration

Article 19. Applicants who are admitted to the university as students must complete initial registration by submitting all documents required by the Office of the Registrar. At this time, students will also register for courses and pay tuition and special fees.

Section 2 Course Registration

Article 20. Course registration in the semester system or trimester system consists of two types:

- (1) Regular registration, which is done prior to the beginning of each semester.
- (2) Late registration, which is done within the first two weeks of the academic term or within the first week of the summer session.

The registration schedule, place, and procedures shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

The registration in the module or other system shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

Article 21. Students registering for an academic term must register for not more than 22 credits in the semester or trimester system and not more than 9 credits for the summer session.

Article 22. Students who wish to register for courses on an S/U basis instead of those stipulated in their program of study must follow Article 28 and send a request to the Office of the Registrar. Consent must be given by both the Academic Advisor and Course Coordinator. The total number of credits for course registration must abide by Article 21.

Article 23. Students may register for a course as a visitor as in Article 22.

Article 24. Course registration must be approved by the Academic Advisor following as determined by the Program.

Section 3 Course Exemptions

Article 25. Students may be exempted from certain courses in their program of study if they have previously passed those courses or have similar content from Chulalongkorn University and provided that they received a grade of S or a grade not lower than C or equivalent.

Exempted courses as mentioned above must have been taken within a period of not more than 5 years starting from the following term in which the student received a grade for the course taken.

Course exemption request must be made in the first academic term in which the student is enrolled and must be approved by the Program Committee and the Faculty Administrative Board.

The additional regulations of course exemption shall be determined by the Program Committee.

Article 26. In cases where an exemption has taken place, after the student has taken and passed other regular subjects apart from those that have been exempted, it can then be considered that he/she has fulfilled the requirements of subjects to be taken in his/her program.

Article 27. The grade point from course exemptions shall not be calculated and the study time shall be compared based on the number of credits exempted, according to the ratio of total credits in the program. These exemptions shall be considered as part of the study period.

Students who have been exempt from courses shall not be awarded, as stated in Article 73.

Section 4 Adding, dropping, and withdrawing from courses

Article 28. Adding courses in the semester or trimester system must be done within the first two weeks of an academic term or within the first week of a summer session.

Adding courses in the module or other system shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

Article 29. Dropping courses in the semester system must be done within the first six weeks of an academic term or within the first two weeks of a summer session. Dropped courses do not appear on a transcript.

Dropping courses in the module or other system shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

Article 30. Withdrawing courses in the semester or trimester system can be done after the first six weeks but not later than twelve weeks of an academic term or after the first two weeks but not later than the first four weeks of a summer session. Withdrawn courses remain on the student's academic record and will appear on the student's academic transcript.

In case a student withdraws after the first twelve weeks of an academic term or after the first four weeks of a summer session, a fine will be imposed as determined by the university. Additionally, withdrawing from courses must be done no later than the first fifteen weeks of an academic term or the first five weeks of a summer session and at least three working days prior to the examination date of those courses.

Withdrawing courses in the module or other system shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

Article 31. Adding and dropping from courses must be approved by Academic Advisor. Withdrawing from courses must be approved by the Dean with the approval from Academic Advisor and Course Instructor.

Article 32. Students wishing to drop or withdraw from courses must remain registered for not less than one other course in an academic term.

Section 5 Course re-registration

Article 33. Course re-registration must comply with the following stipulations:

- (1) Students who have received a grade of F, U, or W in a compulsory course must reregister for the course until they receive a grade of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D, or S, otherwise will be unable to graduate.
- (2) Students who receive a grade of F, U, or W in an elective course may register for another course instead.
- (3) In cases other than (1) and (2) above, students may re-register for any course that is referred to as "Relearning".
- (4) Any grade points earned from relearning course registration will appear on the student's academic transcript.

Section 6 Study Period

Article 34. Students must attend the registered classes following as determined by the University or assigned part.

Chapter V
Assessment Levels

Section 1
Assessment Levels

Article 35. Courses taken will receive a letter grade and equivalent grade point as follows:

Grade	Meaning	Score
A	Excellent	4.0
B+	Very good	3.5
B	Good	3.0
C+	Fairly good	2.5
C	Fair	2.0
D+	Poor	1.5
D	Very poor	0.5
F	Fail	0.0
I	Incomplete	–
M	Missing	–
P	In progress	–
S	Satisfactory	–
U	Unsatisfactory	–
V	Visitor	–
W	Withdrawn	–
X	No report	–

Section 2
Criteria for assignment of letter grades

Article 36. Course assessment takes place at the end of each academic term.

Article 37. Letter grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D, S, and F or U may be given only in the following circumstances:

- (1) A student is assessed in a course by an examination or other requirement.
- (2) When an assessment takes place within the first two weeks of the subsequent term, in the case of Article 39 (1) and Article 39 (2), I (Incomplete) may be changed afterward to another grade not higher than C or as the actual assessment outcome.
- (3) When there is a change from an M (Missing), P (In Progress), or X (No Report).

Article 38. Other than those cases stipulated in Article 37 above, a grade of F (Fail) or U (Unsatisfactory) may be given in the following circumstances:

- (1) A course in which the instructor does not permit the student to take the examination;
- (2) A student is found cheating in an examination or violating of examination rules, regulations, or orders issued by the University, Faculty, Department, or Program, and the Faculty Administrative Board deems that the violation is serious enough to warrant the grade of F (Fail);

- (3) When an assessment has not taken place within the first two weeks of the subsequent term in which a student registers, resulting in the change from I (Incomplete) to F (Fail);
- (4) When a student is unable to produce sufficient evidence to justify his/her absence from an examination within the first two weeks of the subsequent academic term, resulting in the change from M (Missing) to F (Fail).

Article 39. A letter grade of I (Incomplete) may be given only in the following cases:

- (1) A student becomes ill before the end of the term and remains ill up until the examination period and is thus unable to take the examination in some or all courses, and upon receiving a petition and consulting with the course instructors, the Dean determines that the student's absence from the examination represents only a small portion of the course requirements.
- (2) A student has attended classes up through the end of the term and then becomes ill during the examination period and is thus unable to take some or all of his/ her examinations, and the Dean of the Faculty approves the student's petition to receive the letter I (Incomplete).
- (3) A student misses an examination due to extreme circumstances as defined by the University Announcement on Approval in the Event of Extreme Circumstances for Undergraduates and the Board of the Faculty to which the student is affiliated agrees to issue an I (Incomplete).
- (4) A student is unable to complete work that is a partial requirement of the course, and the instructor, with the approval of the Head of Department (if any), approves a postponement of the final assessment while notifying the Office of the Registrar of such when submitting assessments of other students enrolled in the course.

When an I (Incomplete) is changed as in (1) and (2) above, the student may be given a grade not higher than a C, or he/ she may be given the actual grade he/she has earned based on guidelines contained in the Chulalongkorn University announcement on assigning grades to students at the undergraduate level who miss an examination due to illness.

Article 40. An M (Missing) may be given only when a student has missed the final examination but has not yet provided adequate evidence explaining his/her absence.

Article 41. An assessment of P (In Progress) may be issued at the end of the first academic term for which a student is registered for coursework or other requirements for not more than two consecutive academic terms.

Article 42. An assessment of S (Satisfactory), indicating that a student's results have been satisfactory, may be issued only in the following circumstances:

- (1) In subjects designated by the program as non-letter or non-credit courses.
- (2) Students enrolled in the course as in Article 22.

Article 43. An assessment of U (Unsatisfactory) may be issued in Article 42 when a student's results are determined to be unsatisfactory.

Article 44. An assessment of V (Visitor) may be issued only in certain courses for which a student has registered as a visitor and the instructor determines that the student has shown sufficient interest.

Article 45. Other than those cases stipulated in Article 60, Article 61, and Article 62, an assessment of W (Withdrawn) may be given in a course for which a student has registered at the end of the sixth week of the term or at the end of the second week of the summer session under these circumstances:

- (1) The student has the approval to withdraw from the course with the conditions in Article 30.
- (2) The student becomes ill before the end of the academic term and remains ill through the examination period, preventing him/her from attending examinations in some or all of his/her courses.
- (3) The student has officially requested a leave of absence.
- (4) The student is suspended during the academic term for reasons other than a violation of the rules, regulations, announcements, or orders pertaining to examinations set down by the Program, Department, Faculty, and University without the condition in Article 60, Article 61 or Article 62.
- (5) The Dean approves a change of I (Incomplete) under Article 39 (1) or Article 39 (2) or Article 39 (3) if it appears that the student's illness or unexpected circumstances have not ended.
- (6) In a subject for which the student has registered as a visitor (V), the instructor feels that the student has not paid sufficient attention.
- (7) In a subject for which a student has registered in violation of Program regulations, conditions, or requirements.

An assessment of W (Withdrawn) in the module or other system shall be determined by the Office of the Registrar.

Remark: An X (No Report) may be given only when the Office of Registrar has not received an assessment in a course as required.

Section 3 GPA Computation

Article 46. Each student's grade point average (GPA) is to be calculated at the end of each academic term.

Article 47. There are two types of grade point average (GPA), which are calculated as follows:

- (1) To calculate the semester grade point average, the number of credits assigned to each course is multiplied by the point value for the letter grade earned in that course. Then the grade points of all courses for the semester are totaled and divided by the number of credit hours attempted.
- (2) To calculate the cumulated grade point average (GPAX), the credit hours and grade points from all semesters in which the student is registered are totaled. Then the total grade points are divided by the total cumulative credit attempted (CAX).

Section 4 Student status categorization

Article 48. Student status consists of two types: regular status and probation status.

- (1) Regular status student as follows;
 - (A) Students who enrolled in the first semester.
 - (B) Students who have a grade point average (GPA) not less than 2.00.
- (2) Probation status students are defined as those who have a grade point average (GPA) between 1.50 and 1.99.

Article 49. Article 49. Student status categorization shall be determined according to Article 48.

Article 50. Student status categorization shall be determined at the end of each evaluated academic semester or the end of the summer session for students who complete the program requirements and are eligible for graduation, except for students who study in the first semester, who shall be categorized at the end of the second semester.

Article 51. The grades obtained in the courses taken during the summer session will be added and calculated with the grades obtained in the subsequent semester, and the grades will be computed in accordance with the semester in which those courses were taken.

Chapter VI Sick Leave

Article 52. Sick leave is categorized into two types:

- (1) Sick leave before examination means that if a student falls ill before the end of a semester or summer session and is still sick on the examination date, they may be unable to attend some or all the examinations.
- (2) Sick leave during examination means that if a student studies the whole semester or summer session, but is unable to attend some or all the examinations.

Article 53. Sick leave according to Article 52. The student must submit the request to the Dean within one week from the first date of illness, along with a medical certificate from the Chulalongkorn University Health Service Center, the Office of Student Affairs, a government medical service, or a private medical service certified by the Ministry of Public Health.

Chapter VII Leave of Absence

Article 54. Within the last day of classes in a semester as designated in the academic calendar, and before examination or evaluation of any courses that the student has registered for, the student may send a request to the Dean for leave of absence in the following cases:

- (1) Being conscripted or mobilized for military service.
- (2) Receive international student exchange scholarships or other scholarships that are directly beneficial to students' undergraduate studies.
- (3) Sickness requiring hospitalization for medical treatment for over 3 weeks.
- (4) Sickness requiring rest for over three weeks as ordered by a doctor.
- (5) Personal leave of absence may be granted with the approval of the Faculty Administrative Board. Any leave of study taken under conditions (3) and (4) must be accompanied by a medical certificate, as outlined in regulation Article 53.

Article 55. If a force majeure event necessitates a leave of absence that does not fall under Article 54, students must submit a request to the Dean for consideration without delay. The Faculty Administrative Board will then review and approve the request based on the criteria set forth in the university announcement.

Article 56. A leave of absence under the conditions described in Article 54 and Article 55 may be approved for no longer than 2 semesters each time.

Article 57. In the event that students are granted leave of absence from the study, the duration of the leave shall be included in the study period, unless students are granted leave of absence according to Article 54 (1) or other reasons specified by the university.

Article 58. During a leave of study, students must pay to maintain their student status every semester as announced by the university, unless they have already paid the tuition fee for that semester. Failure to do so will result in the termination of their student status.

Upon receiving approval for study leave, the student must request that the registrar's office notify the relevant department so that they will not be required to use services provided by the university or faculty, except for those related to student health.

Article 59. Upon returning to study after a leave of absence, students will have the same student status as they did prior to receiving approval for the leave of study.

Chapter VIII In the Case of Student Misconduct Related to Education

Article 60. In the event that any student commits an offense or participates in an offense in the semester examination midterm exam or intersemester exams organized by the faculty or instructors to measure academic results, the Dean of which the student is affiliated shall consider the following actions;

- (1) If the offense involves academic misconduct, take action based on the severity and circumstances of the offense, as follows:
 - (A) Termination of student status;
 - (B) The student will receive a symbol of F or U, depending on the case, and will be required to withdraw from all other courses in which they are registered for the semester in which the offense was committed. In addition, 20 behavior points will be deducted;
- (2) If the offense is suspected to be related to academic misconduct, the student will receive an F symbol in the courses where the fraudulent actions took place, and 15 behavior points will be deducted;
- (3) If an offense is not explicitly covered by regulations, rules, announcements, practices, or orders related to examinations, appropriate action will be taken. However, such action will not exceed awarding an F symbol in the course where the offense occurred and/or a deduction of 10 behavior points.

In order to carry out the provisions of the first paragraph, the Dean shall appoint a committee to examine the facts. The committee shall consist of the Deputy Dean, who shall be appointed by the Dean as the chairperson, and no more than five other members. The committee shall have the power to collect evidence or summon relevant individuals to provide statements. Afterward, the committee shall submit a report, along with their opinions, to the Dean for consideration of appropriate actions under the provisions of the first paragraph. The Dean shall then report to the Faculty Executive Board for information. However, all actions must be completed without delay.

The committee appointed under the provisions of paragraph two shall conduct an inquiry into the facts. Students who have been accused of committing an offense or participating in an offense must be given sufficient notice of the relevant facts and afforded an opportunity to present their arguments and evidence. Any committee member who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter under consideration shall recuse themselves from the proceedings. Students have the right to access documents that are necessary for the purposes of presenting arguments, clarifying matters, or defending their rights. They also have the right to be represented by legal counsel or an advisor of their own choice in order to provide information to the committee.

Article 61. In the event that any student commits an offense or participates in other offenses related to education The dean to whom the student is affiliated shall consider taking action in accordance with the case against such offense. Article 60 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 62. Actions according to Article 60 and Article 61 shall be taken in cases where the offending student's faculty is not responsible for overseeing the course in which the offense was committed, in accordance with the university announcement and to be carried out by a committee appointed in accordance with the announcement.

Article 63. When there is reasonable cause to consider reducing the behavior points specified in Article 60, the Dean or an authorized committee proceeding under Article 60, Article 61, or Article 62, may reduce the behavior score of the student to less than the score specified in Item 60, but not less than half of the specified score. The score shall be rounded to the nearest integer.

Justifications under paragraph one are as follows:

- (1) Offender students realize their guilt and try to alleviate the harmful effects of that guilt;
- (2) The offending student admits to their guilt and confesses to the examiner. The examination committee, the Dean, or the committee authorized to proceed according to Article 60, Article 61, or Article 62, as the case may be, records the confession in writing;
- (3) Students who commit offenses testify or perform actions that are beneficial to the consideration; or
- (4) Any other circumstance that the Dean or the committee having authority to consider proceeding under Article 60, Article 61 or Article 62, as the case may be, deems to be similar.

Article 64. When the Dean of the faculty to which the offender is affiliated has issued a punishment order according to Article 60 or Article 61, or an order according to the resolution of the committee according to Article 62, the Registrar shall be notified for acknowledgment and further action.

Chapter IX Academic Suspension

Article 65. The academic suspension for students, as regulated by other university policies, shall begin from the subsequent semester after the semester in which the offense was committed. The suspension period shall be continuous and shall be counted towards the student's study period.

Students whose studies have been suspended must pay a fee to maintain their student status, but they will not be able to use the university's services except for student health services.

In the event that a student commits an offense in the semester during which they are studying as part of their curriculum and is suspended from the study, the Faculty Administrative Board of the student's faculty is not permitted to nominate the student for approval of a degree or diploma by the University Council as stipulated in Article 72 until the suspension period has ended.

Article 66. Students whose studies have been suspended must pay to maintain their student status every semester as announced by the University. Otherwise, the student status must be terminated.

Chapter X

Termination and Reinstatement of Student Status

Article 67. Students shall be terminated from their student status in the following cases:

- (1) After completing the course and receiving a degree, as in article 69.
- (2) When a student resigns unless the student has completely paid off the debt with the Faculty or University.
- (3) Students who have not registered by the end of the first two weeks of the semester, or who fail to maintain their student status by not paying tuition fees or late registration fees (if any).
- (4) When a student's academic status is being evaluated and they have a GPAX (cumulative GPA) of less than 1.50.
- (5) When a student is classified as a probationary student and has a GPAX lower than 1.80 for two consecutive semesters.
- (6) When a student remains on probationary status for four consecutive semesters without ending their probationary status.
- (7) At the end of the study period, as specified in Article 14, if the student has not earned enough credits for the curriculum requirements or if the GPAX is below 2.00, the student's status will be terminated.
- (8) When the Dean orders termination of student status according to Article 60, Article 61, or Article 62.
- (9) When violating regulations or other rules of the university and the university has ordered the termination of student status.
- (10) Dead.

Article 68. A student whose student status has been terminated under Article 67 (3) may request the reinstatement of their student status within the semester in which it was terminated, subject to the approval of the Faculty Administrative Board and the President.

Chapter XII Graduation

Section 1 Degree or Diploma Obtaining

Article 69. Students eligible for a degree must have all the following qualifications:

- (1) Be a student in the last semester who has completed the course registration.
- (2) A four-year program student cannot graduate before 6 regular semesters. Students in the five-year program cannot graduate before 8 regular semesters, and six-year students cannot graduate before 10 regular semesters.

Article 70. Qualifications of students eligible for diplomas are in accordance with Chulalongkorn University's regulations on that matter.

Article 71. Students who meet all the qualifications as specified in Articles 69 and Article 70 must submit a request for a degree or diploma according to the announcement of the Office of the Registrar. Failure to do so will result in a fine as announced by the university and the student may not be considered for nomination to the University Council for approval of a degree or diploma in that semester.

Section 2 Degree or Diploma Awarding

Article 72. The Faculty Administrative Board to which the student belongs shall consider nominating students who possess complete qualifications and have good behavior for a degree or diploma. The nomination will then be submitted to the University Council for approval after the student has earned the required number of credits for their program and achieved a cumulative grade point average of not less than 2.00.

Receiving an honors degree is in accordance with the regulation of Chulalongkorn University on that matter.

Those who have been approved by the Faculty Administrative Board to graduate by the final day of the academic year specified by the university, and have received approval from the University Council for graduation, have the right to receive a diploma in that academic year, except for students who have outstanding tuition fees or other fees and expenses.

Section 3 Medal Awarding

Article 73. Students who have the right to receive medals must have the following qualifications:

- (1) Received a first class honors degree; and
- (2) Get the highest cumulative point average among graduates of the program in the same academic year;
- (3) No subjects requesting exemptions according to Article 25.

The consideration for awarding medals is typically done at the end of each academic year.

Temporary Provisions

Article 74. The provisions of any relevant regulations, announcements, criteria, guidelines, or orders that were in effect prior to the implementation of these regulations shall be applied mutatis mutandis if there are no specific regulations or announcements issued by the University that are contrary to or inconsistent with these regulations.

Article 75. The consideration of punishment for students in cases of misconduct related to education before the B.E. 2564 academic year has already been carried out in accordance with the Chulalongkorn University Regulations on Undergraduate Studies B.E. 2556 and its amendments, but has not yet been completed. The mitigating circumstances under this regulation shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Announced on March 9, 2021

Emeritus Professor Pirom Kamolratanakul, Ph.D.
Chairperson of the University Council